

A collection of hand tools, including chisels and gouges with wooden handles, are arranged on a wooden workbench. Some tools are in a wooden rack, while others are laid out on the surface. The background is slightly blurred, showing a glass and other items. A semi-transparent red overlay covers the left side of the image, where the text 'COCKPIT ARTS' is written in white.

COCKPIT ARTS

About Cockpit Arts

Cockpit Arts support extraordinary craftspeople making work in the UK. We are an award winning social enterprise providing the UK's only creative-business incubator for designer-makers.

Selection of work from the Cockpit Arts Open Studios Christmas 2014. Photos by Jamie Trounce

Private Shopping Experience

Normally closed to the public, Cockpit Arts is very much a working studio space in the heart of London. Discover our 'Hidden Gem' on your exclusive private shopping experience:

Each bespoke experience is created for and with the client; ensuring an exciting and special visit to our Cockpit Arts.

Enjoy exclusive access to a selection of designer-makers in their studios; with the opportunity to purchase beautiful, hand-crafted products before anyone else.

*Images: Catarina Riccabona.
Photography by Jamie Trounce*

Sample Itinerary: Wedding Themed Experience

Brides-to-be will find everything they need right here at Cockpit Arts. From wedding favours to invitations, jewellery to millinery; every aspect of your wedding will have that that special and personal touch.

Sample itinerary for a 2 hour private shopping experience:

- 14:00 Arrival: Glass of Champagne and Building Tour
- 14:10 Visit Karen Henriksen: Bridal Millinery
- 14:40 Visit Sally Lees: Wedding Favours & Cufflinks
- 15:10 Visit Yen Jewellery: Bridal Accessories & Jewellery
- 15:40 Visit SORT: Letterpress Printed Wedding Invitations
- 16:00 End of Visit

Images (clockwise from top left): Karen Henriksen, Sally Lees, Yen Jewellery and SORT

Prices & Contact Details

Private Shopping Experience for up to 4 Guests:
£200 +VAT

Private Shopping Experience for up to 10 Guests:
£250 +VAT

To book your Private Shopping Experience please contact Sandie Mattioli on 020 7430 2942 or via sandie@cockpitarts.com

Please note that we advise booking a minimum of 30 days in advance.

