COCKPIT ARTS

About Cockpit Arts

Cockpit Arts is an award winning social enterprise and the UK's only business incubator for craftspeople, housing up to 170 small businesses at our two centres in central and south London.

We support craft practitioners at the start of their careers, as well as those who are more established, to grow and build successful and thriving businesses both in the UK and internationally.

Educational Tours: bespoke, tailored, informative

- Each bespoke tour is created for and with the client; ensuring a focused and productive visit to our studios.
- Tours can be tailored to suit groups of up to 30 guests.
- Interaction with a selection of Cockpit Arts staff and makers throughout the tour ensures an engaging and informative visit.

Example One: Designer-Maker Focused

University and college groups studying arts and craft disciplines will gain an invaluable insight into the professional working world by visiting successful makers in our studios.

With a wide range of disciplines spanning Textiles, Jewellery, Ceramics and more, guests can curate their visit according to their artistic interests.
