COCKPIT ARTS

About Cockpit Arts

Cockpit Arts is an award winning social enterprise and the UK's only business incubator for craftspeople, housing up to 170 small businesses at our two centres in central and south London.

We support craft practitioners at the start of their careers, as well as those who are more established, to grow and build successful and thriving businesses both in the UK and internationally.

Schools Tours: bespoke, tailored, informative

- Each bespoke tour is created for and with your school; ensuring a focused and productive visit to our studios.
- Tours can be tailored to suit groups of up to 30 guests.
- Interaction with a selection of Cockpit Arts staff and makers throughout the tour ensures an engaging and informative visit.

"Our pupils found meeting with you inspiring and extremely thought provoking. Many have already begun to implement their learning to benefit the members of their school's community."
