

Call for Applications Harriet's Trust Award 2022 – 2025 at Cockpit

About

The three-year Harriet's Trust Award is aiming to support a talented maker working in any* craft discipline with a commitment to high quality craftsmanship. With this very generous Award, the recipient will receive tailored business support and a heavily subsidised space in a shared studio for up to three years.

Details

In the first year this Award is worth £5,000, the total sum (Award and Maker's supplement) contributes to the cost of a space in a shared studio, tailored business support and other Cockpit services. The Award space and site is allocated at Cockpit's discretion. Please note that most studios are shared, and sizes vary, but an average studio space per maker is around 100-150sq ft. The recipient will be required to submit a light application for each year of further funding.

- In the first year, the Award requires a supplement of £500, payable over the 12 months of the Award.
- In the second year, the Award requires a supplement of £1,000, payable over the 12 months of the Award.
- In the third year, the Award requires a supplement of £2,000, payable over the 12 months of the Award.

The Award includes the following benefits:

- Space in a shared studio for up to three years within the creative community at Cockpit, site to be decided.
- Participation in the Make It Count workshops with a cohort of other Bursary and Award recipients.
- Business and professional development including on-site coaching, workshops, and seminars.
- Selling and promotional opportunities including twice-yearly Open Studios events.

The Award is open to makers practicing any* craft discipline and to be eligible, applicants must:

- Be willing and able to make a commitment to take up the Award for its full duration by 1st February or 1st September 2022, attend an Induction Day and attend a set of 'Make It Count' workshops
- Be a UK resident currently living in the UK and entitled to remain in the UK for the period of the Award (Cockpit is not able to sponsor or support visa applications in any way.)
- Fully research and address the health and safety requirements of their practice and be prepared to invest as required to keep the shared studio space a safe environment for themselves and the other occupants. This could include adding ventilation equipment and flooring.
- Commit to developing their practice during the period of the Award
- Arrange and pay for their own public liability [minimum £5m] and contents insurance prior to their start date.
